

Celebrating our 160th Anniversary!

Investing in Volunteers

Jewish Care Scotland have achieved the Investing in Volunteers award! We are absolutely delighted; a lot of work went into achieving this.

We celebrated achieving this fantastic award at our Volunteer Coffee Evening on Thursday 7th June.

We were joined by Kenneth Ross, Deputy Lieutenant, who officially presented Dr Richard Groden, JCS Chairman, with the Investing in Volunteers award. Richard said: "We are here to recognise and thank our volunteers, without them JCS wouldn't exist. Our Volunteer Manager, Ellen McVey, joined us two years ago and has been working with a core team consisting of Jennifer Watson, Rona Statt, Lennie Wilson and Adrienne Spencer to achieve this award. Thank you to the Charles Wolfson Charitable Trust which has supported us for three years to achieve this award."

The Kosher Chef provided everyone with a delicious buffet and Newlands Bakery made personalised JCS and Investing in Volunteers cupcakes.

The Volunteer Coffee Evening also kickstarted our 160th anniversary celebrations, there will be other events throughout the year to mark this special occasion!

Arty Party

Our Arty Party was a wonderful success! We had 40 budding artists join us for an evening of painting which raised a fantastic £800. The Kosher Chef provided a delightful buffet for our would-be artists which was followed by a raffle.

Thank you to everyone who attended, donated and supported this event, we really appreciate it. A special thanks to the volunteers on hand Vivian Greenhill, Joanna Hyman, Lyn Wolfson, Loretta Steen and model Linda Lovat.

TOUGH MUDDER

On Sunday 17th June Jewish Care Scotland took on Tough Mudder Half. Fifteen brave individuals signed up for the task and to date have raised over £4500.

The participants included: Lorraine Bennett, Richard Groden, Lee Groden, Bev Benshetrit, Philippa Bishop, Hazel Tenby, Alison Ure, Elspeth Campbell, Lynda Johnston, Andrea Fox, Lotta Cates, Bradley Kay, Susan Alexander, Gary Duncan and Chris Doherty.

The event took place at Drumlanrig Castle in Dumfries and Galloway. It was a muddy five-mile-long course consisting of 14 challenging obstacles. Sewer Rat, Birth Canal and Mud Mile were just three of the taxing obstacles.

Team JCS did valiantly and completed the course in under three hours. Despite the rain holding off the team were covered head to toe in mud at the end! You can still donate by visiting: www.justgiving.com/jcarescot
